

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

HEAD OF THE INSTITUTION

Feedback collected from students, Alumni, Industry, parents and teachers will be analyzed by head of the institution about the changes in industry demand for new courses will be reviewed in the College Academic Committee

COLLEGE ACADEMIC COMMITTEE (CAC)

Head of the institution, all head of the departments and Senior Professors.
Will review the HODs proposals like changes in Syllabi, Introduction of new courses, and modifications in course Structure/Subjects according to the industry needs.

BOARDS OF STUDIES (BoS)

Chairman/Convener, 2 Internal Members, 2 External Members
Discussions on change in syllabus and new course introduction and their outcome relevance to industry demand and job prospects for the students will be decided and forwarded to Standing Committee. Any changes in the valuation process in giving internal and external marks including changes in credits also will be reviewed.

STANDING COMMITTEE

Vice-Chancellor, Registrar, Director Academic & Planning, Director of Evaluation, Director of Admissions, Principals of Constituent Colleges
All the academic matters are discussed elaborately, after approval matter will be forwarded to Executive Council for final approval and implementation.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL (UNIVERSITY GOVERNING BODY)

Executive Council is the highest body for finalizing academic, financial matters of the university which consists of Government Officials, experts from Industry, eminent Academic professionals as members.

RESPECTIVE PRINCIPALS

To implement the Changes